

Anti-Bribery Statement

UMIC is committed to promoting ethical conduct and integrity in business practices across all business relationships. UMIC fully supports the requirements of the UK Bribery Act as well as similar legislation in all regions in which we conduct business. We have implemented policies and procedures to ensure we are prepared, to the extent possible, to prevent and deter corrupt practices across our business relationships.